Small Administration Announces Closure of City Government Offices January 3 Due to Inclement Weather

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (January 2, 2022) – Due to the National Weather Service forecast for heavy snow and wind, Mayor Marty Small, Sr. announced today the closure of all Atlantic City Government offices on Monday, January 3.

Essential personnel assigned to public works, 911 communications, police, and fire will report for duty at their normal hours or as directed by their supervisor.

Pending any further weather updates, City Government offices will resume normal operations on Tuesday, January 4, at 8:30 a.m.

The Atlantic City Office of Emergency Management and Department of Public Works will continue to monitor the weather and road conditions. The safety and well-being of City residents and employees are of the utmost concern. The public is strongly encouraged to remain off the roads tomorrow unless travel is absolutely necessary and to check the City's website and Facebook page for additional updates from City officials.
