NEWS RELEASE

22 Atlantic City First Responders Honored

Atlantic City, N.J. (September 21, 2022) - During the “First Serve to our First Responders” luncheon at Atlantic City’s Ocean Casino Resort on Wednesday, 22 Atlantic City First Responders were honored for their hard work and dedication to the community.

Mayor Marty Small, Sr., ACPD Chief James Sarkos, ACFD Chief Scott Evans and Atlantic City Public Works Director Paul Jerkins handed out the awards.

“The great City of Atlantic City knows how important First Responders are,” said Mayor Small. “Continue to do the great job that you do, know that we care about you and know that when the time came for this Administration to put our money where our mouth is as far as compensation, we did it because we appreciate you and recognize all the fine work that you do.”

Congratulations to all of the honorees and thank you for your service!
