Atlantic City Is Gaining Ground as Las Vegas Faces Challenges

BY TOM LAVECCHIA

DECEMBER 22, 2025

Directly from the article....

“And while Vegas grapples with rising costs, thinning margins, and stubborn drops in visitor volume, Atlantic City, the perennial underdog, is piecing together a comeback that doesn’t look like a fluke.”

“As leaders, we have to be comfortable being uncomfortable”

– Mayor Small

RECENT TRENDS IN ATLANTIC CITY

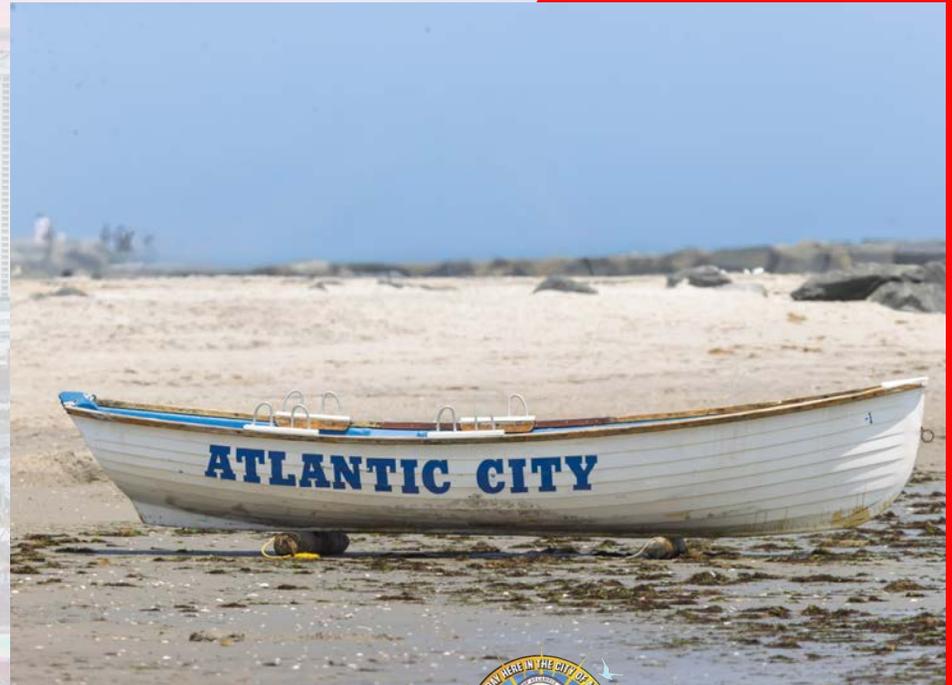

Poverty rate is DOWN

Unemployment rate is DOWN

Vacancy rate is DOWN

Homeownership rate is UP

Home values are WAY UP

FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY

MBCA
ATLANTIC CITY METROPOLITAN
BUSINESS & CITIZENS ASSOCIATION

MOODY'S UPGRADE

Moody's Ratings has upgraded the city's issuer credit rating to investment-grade status for the first time in more than a decade!

Disciplined Fiscal Management

Responsible Budgeting

Steady Debt Reduction

Outlooks no longer needed

DEBT REDUCTION

Atlantic City currently has approximately $228 million in outstanding debt

Of that amount, only $71 Million represents direct debt incurred by the city itself

Debt was once more than $524 Million

Expect debt to drop another $26 Million this year

NEW PILOT BILL

Make sure Atlantic City is made whole

Continue to pay off our debt

Still don't get parking tax, luxury tax or sports betting tax

Progress made, but still have a long way to go

MBOA
BUSINESS & CITIES ASSOCIATION

REVENUE & FINANCE

There have been SIX straight decreases for Atlantic City taxpayers under the Small Administration

There WILL BE a seventh in 2026!

NEW OBJECTIVES

Optimization of revenues

Earn an upgrade by Standard & Poor's

Employee contracts: one-to-four-year deal

Work to increase city employee min salary to $35K

SOLICITOR'S OFFICE

Continue the trend of staying under budget

2025 bills are still being submitted -
expected to save 30-40%

Our solicitors office saved 41% in 2024

INFRASTRUCTURE

More than a quarter billion dollars is being invested in Atlantic City's infrastructure at ZERO cost to the taxpayers!
