City of Atlantic City Showers Senior Residents with Love at Valentine's Ball

Atlantic City, N.J. (February 16, 2026) – Love has no age limit! On Friday, February 13, 2026, Atlantic City's senior community gathered for an elegant evening out on the town at the Friendship & Love Valentine's Ball. Hosted by the Atlantic City Senior Services division, this beloved annual event (formerly known as the Senior Gala) brought hundreds of residents ages 55 and older together for a memorable celebration.

Held in the Grand Ballroom of The Claridge Hotel, the event transformed the space into a festive Valentine's showcase. Guests embraced the spirit of the occasion, arriving in beautiful shades of red and pink. Attendees looked spectacular as they enjoyed an evening of dining and dancing. The celebration featured music that kept the dance floor lively throughout the night, along with exciting raffle prizes that added to the evening's fun, and photo booths to keep the memories alive forever. Transportation was provided by the city to and from local senior residential buildings, allowing more residents to participate in the special occasion.

Mayor Marty Small, Sr. and the Atlantic City Senior Services division remain committed to creating unforgettable experiences like this one that keep the city's senior residents active and engaged. For more information about senior programs and upcoming events, residents are encouraged to contact Atlantic City Senior Services at 609-347-5458 or visit the Senior Services section of the City of Atlantic City's website: www.acnj.gov.
