Statement on Federal Charges Against City of Atlantic City Employee

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (September 25, 2026) – Mayor Marty Small, Sr., and his attorney, Edwin J. Jacobs, Jr., Esq., issued the following statement regarding the federal charges against City employee Kashawn McKinley:

Atlantic City Mayor Marty Small, Sr. has been advised of an FBI Criminal Complaint against City employee Kashawn McKinley. Mayor Small makes no judgement on the accuracy of claims in that complaint because this is America, he believes in the justice system and Kashawn McKinley is innocent until proven guilty like any other American. Kashawn McKinley has been suspended immediately without pay pending the outcome of the case. Mayor Small remains committed to a transparent administration. He will therefore carefully review all aspects of this matter and keep the public fully informed. He does this to assure the citizens of Atlantic City the continued integrity of the Atlantic City government.
