City of Atlantic City to Host First Black Business Expo

Atlantic City, NJ (August 22, 2025) The City of Atlantic City's Department of Economic Development, with the support of Mayor Marty Small, Sr., will host the city's first Black Business Expo this Tuesday, August 26, from 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM at the All Wars Memorial Building. This event is free and open to the public. The expo will feature dozens of local Black-owned businesses showcasing products and services. Attendees will have the opportunity to connect directly with business owners.

Highlights of the event include:

- Panel discussions and networking opportunities with both veteran and emerging entrepreneurs, who will discuss economic empowerment in Atlantic City
- Assistance with Small Business Micro-Business Grant Applications
- A historical exhibit curated by Ralph Hunter, highlighting the history of Black businesses in Atlantic City.

The Black Business Expo is part of the City of Atlantic City's recognition of National Black Business Month, observed every August to acknowledge the impact of Black-owned businesses on local & national economies. The African American Chamber of Commerce of New Jersey, along with the African American Chamber of Commerce of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware, will also be participating in this event.
