RECOGNITION ON A JOB WELL DONE

Charlie 2 Patrol, Surveillance Unit, Communications Unit, and Criminal Investigations/Violent Crimes Unit

On January 28, patrol officers responded to the Medical Center for a report of a woman who was dropped off at the emergency department suffering from a gunshot wound. The individual that dropped off the victim left immediately after. The victim, 32, of Atlantic City, was treated for serious injuries.

Surveillance Center personnel began to search for the vehicle and quickly directed officers to the first block of south Iowa Avenue. Officers were able to locate the vehicle which had blood on it. Through the investigation, officers were led to an apartment inside a building on the block. The suspect, three women, two toddlers, and an infant were removed from the residence that contained evidence of a crime scene. Violent Crimes Unit detectives later executed court authorized search warrants on the apartment and the vehicle.

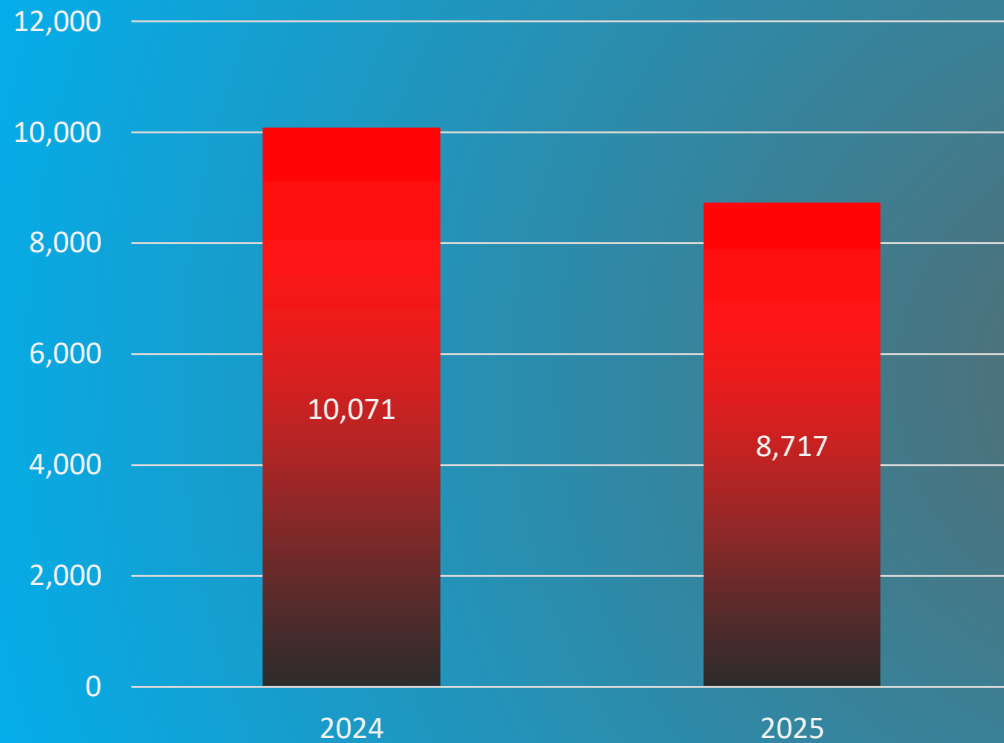

It was determined that the suspect shot the victim and directed another woman to drive her to the medical center. A second woman attempted to assist in cleaning of the residence with cleaning supplies. A handgun and additional evidence were recovered outside of the apartment building.

All are to be recognized for a job well done!
