Atlantic City’s Soldier’s Home to Close 8/14 Until Further Notice for Repair Work

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. – The Small Administration is releasing the following statement on the temporary closure of the All Wars Memorial Building – also known as Soldier’s Home – located at 1510 Adriatic Avenue:

“In the interest of public health and safety, we will have to indefinitely shut down Soldier’s Home beginning Sunday, August 14, 2022 due to a broken air conditioning system.

The Small Administration is working to fix long standing issues in the building that include roof replacement and interior repairs. Until these issues are resolved, the air conditioning system cannot be repaired.

Due to national supply chain shortages, there is no set timeline when this work will be completed and Soldier’s Home can reopen. We estimate this could take up to three months.

We request all parties with events scheduled at Soldier’s Home within the estimated timeframe call 609-347-5407 to discuss their options moving forward, which include refunds or rescheduling your event to a future date. We apologize for any inconvenience.”
